

RIURAU EXPRESS INTERNATIONAL COMPETITION RULES

It will take place in Jesús Pobre, charming village of Denia district, with less than eight hundred inhabitants, located beside Montgó mountain, near less than 10km from the fabulous beaches of Jávea and Denia in Alicante Province.

A room with Wi-Fi will be enabled at Jesús Pobre Town Hall to work on the films' edition.

Purpose of the contest:

- Promote the short film as a means of expression and transmission of culture, encouraging the work of team / or author, without the need of producers and / or distributors.
- Promote cinematographic creativity, being able to demonstrate that a low budget is not a barrier to tell a good story.
To do this, the shorts can be shot with any digital medium that is available (video camera, photo, mobile or tablet).
- Promote the ability of improvisation, the shorts will have to meet certain requirements that will be announced at the time of opening.
- Promote the relationship with the inhabitants of the area, for this the festival will provide a number of volunteers, both to help in locating outdoors, and to act as extras or actors in the making of the shorts.
